Welcome & Opening Prayer

Principal & Teacher Report- Mrs. Klepcyk

- Education Fair was once again a success! Thank you to all who attended and who prepared for the event, especially School Advisory Council.
- A whole school retreat is planned for Holy Thursday, beginning with prayer as a school community and ending with the Living Stations of the Cross put on by our Youth Ministry.
- Last week, we participated in our annual Harvest for Hunger campaign aimed at fighting hunger in our area. We collected many boxes of canned good and non- perishable food items and raised $1300 for the Greater Cleveland Food Bank.
- Eighth grade students shared their amazing talents in the spectacular show, Mary Poppins Jr.
- Good News: SPB was recognized as 1 of 20 schools in the diocese that showed High Achievement AND High Growth on ALL MAP tests for winter testing session.
- We had students participate in the Lifeworks Ohio Respect Life Art & Essay Contest. Congratulations to the 5 winners from our school.
- Upcoming academic events on 4/6: X-STREAM Games, Science Olympiad and Power of the Pen.
- Navigating High School Application Process for 6th and 7th grade parents: 5/1 at 7pm. Those interested in Catholic or independent high schools can attend a presentation and panel discussion from eighth grade parents sharing experience and knowledge of the process covering open house, shadowing, applications, entrance exams, tutoring and finances.
- MAP testing will be 4/29-5/13.
